You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do themselves."

IN LOVING MEMORY OF:

Douglas Allen Edwards

Feb. 12, 1955 – Jan. 16, 2010

Doug Edwards passed away at 11:10 a.m. Saturday January 16, 2010 at the Hart County Health Care Center. He will be greatly missed by his family and spiritual family here at Horse Cave.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his daughter, Sarah Marshall (Dean) and granddaughter Jacqueline, his sister Janice Bybee (Billy), his brother Donnie Gale Edwards (Helen), his step-mother Lois Huff Edwards, and his step brothers Steve Huff (Shirley), Scott Huff and his many nieces nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

All of us who knew Doug will always remember him as one who never gave up in the midst of his trials and struggles. He loved the Lord, His Word and His church. He did lots of good deeds that no one knew about. We can be happy for Doug that he is at rest now and has gone home to be with the Lord. He fought the good fight, finished the race and kept the faith (2 Timothy 4:7).

- Wayne

The Formula For Success

by Edd Sterchi

I was waiting for the oil in my van to be changed the other day when I picked up a magazine called "Success." Always looking for advice on the topic, I began flipping through the pages. In it was an article written by the popular motivational speaker Zig Ziglar on the three keys to success. They were:

Purpose. One has to have a goal in mind and a way to reach that goal to truly achieve. Too many people wonder around aimlessly and then wonder why they never succeed. A purpose gives us something to strive for - something to achieve.

Passion. One must greatly desire the purpose to be attained - so much so that it drives him to do whatever is necessary to reach it. A purpose will rarely be realized unless one is truly passionate about it.

Performance. Purpose and passion are worthless without good, old-fashioned hard work. That's what it takes to get from point A to point B - success doesn't come to you, you must go to it.

What struck me as I read the article was the fact that these are exactly what it takes to succeed in Christianity, as well. Christian, consider the following:

* Do you have a purpose to your Christianity? Do you set Christian goals to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord (2 Pet. 3:18) ? Is every decision on earth made with the ultimate goal of attaining heaven in mind (Col. 3:1-2) ?

* Do you have passion for your Christianity? Do you have a zeal and fervor for serving the Lord (Titus 2:4)? Do you have a driving love for the Lord, and are you always joyful and excited to be a Christian (1 Pet. 1:8)?

* Do you have performance in your Christianity? Do you labor daily for the Lord (Heb. 6:10)? Do you harmoniously involve yourself with the church in every way possible (Eph. 4:11-16)?

Let Paul's words in Phil. 3:12-14 inspire us to heighten all of these in our Christian lives: "Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

A Lovely Light

A candle's but a simple thing...
It starts with just a bit of string,
Yet dipped with patient hand,
It gathers wax upon the strand
Until, complete and snowy white,
It gives at last a lovely light.

Life seems so like that bit of string...
Each deed we do a simple thing,
Yet day by day if on life's strand
We work with patient heart and hand,
It gathers joy, makes dark days bright,
And gives at last a lovely light.
