Being A Grandmother

I like to walk with Grandma,
Her steps are short like mine.
She doesn't say, "Now hurry up,"
She always takes her time.

I like to walk with Grandma,
Her eyes see things mine do.
Wee pebbles bright, a funny cloud,
Half hidden drops of dew.

Most people have to hurry,
They do not stop and see,
I'm glad that God made Grandmas
Unrushed and young like me!

Keep your head and your heart going in the right direction and you will not have to worry about your feet.

"Thinking is the hardest work there is,
which is the probable reason why so few engage in it." (Henry Ford)

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another one.

When you thought I wasn't looking, you fed a stray cat, and I learned that it was good to be kind to animals.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make my favorite cake for me, and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I heard you say a prayer, and I knew that there is a God I could always talk to and I learned to trust in God.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make a meal and take it to a friend who was sick, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you give of your time and money to help people who had nothing, and I learned that those who have something should give to those who don't.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good, and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw tears come from your eyes, and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared and I wanted to be everything that I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be a good and productive person when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I looked at you and wanted to say,

How Does the Holy Spirit Lead?

by Tommy Hagewood

The Holy Spirit leads the alien sinner to become a child of God (John 16:7-11). He also leads the Christian in living a godly life (Romans 8:14).

The question concerns how he leads. Does he lead individual sinners apart from the gospel by subjective feelings, urgings and experiences? Does He then lead Christians in similar ways apart from the written word? The answer to both questions is no!

In times past the Holy Spirit always spoke to the masses through selected individuals -- the Old Testament prophets. In our time He speaks to the masses through selected individuals -- the New Testament apostles and prophets (Ephesians 3:1-5). Today, saints and sinners alike who are lead by the Holy Spirit are lead by the New Testament, God's written words as revealed by the Holy Spirit to the New Testament apostles and prophets (1 Corinthians 2:7-16). To say otherwise is to deny plain passages and to deny the all-sufficiency of the gospel (2 Peter 1:3; Romans 1:16). Such a view also denies Jesus' promise to His apostles that He would guide them into all truth (John 16:13). This false doctrine of personal guidance of the Holy Spirit apart from the written word also denies the apostles' claim that Jesus kept his promise to reveal all truth to them (cf. 2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:3; Jude 3).

Those who claim a personal guidance of the Holy Spirit through their feelings, urges or experiences can never find a passage to support their claim. Such people not only contradict the teaching of God's word, they also contradict each other, making the Holy Spirit speak out of both sides of His mouth telling one person one thing and another one something else. While many politicians of our time are skilled in such matters we must remember that is impossible for God to lie and that he is not the author of division or confusion (1 Corinthians 1:10; 14:33).

The Holy Spirit is a speaking Spirit who always leads by His words (2 Samuel 23:2; Acts 1:16; 1 Timothy 4:1; Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22). He always revealed God's word to selected individuals only. It then became their task to make God's will known to the masses by their speaking and by their writings.

In the past through Noah (2 Peter 2:5; 1 Peter 3:18-20). Moses (John 1:17); the Prophets (Hebrews 1:1; Nehemiah 9:30; 2 Peter 1:21); John the Baptist (Luke 1:15; Mark 1:4; Luke 1:26, 30).

Now through the Apostles (John 14:26; 16:13; Mark 16:1; Matthew 28:19; Acts 2:1-4); in the written word (Ephesians 3:1-5; 1 Corinthians 14:37).

Acts 2 serves as a perfect example of such divine leadership of the Holy Spirit. He guided Peter to speak to the crowd. The Holy Spirit thus led the people though Him to believe and obey the gospel. After becoming God's in Christ, they continue to be led by the Holy Spirit through the apostles' teaching (Acts 2:42).
