Just Think...

Of stepping on shore
And finding it Heaven!
Of taking hold of a hand
And finding it God's Hand!
Of breathing a new air
And finding it celestial air!
Of feeling invigorated
And finding it immortality!
Of passing from storm and tempest
To an unbroken calm;
Of waking up and finding
Yourself home!

Christ in the New Testament

In Matthew He is the King of the Jews. In Mark He is the Servant of God. In Luke He is the perfect Son of man. In John He is the Son of God. In Acts He is the ascended Lord. In Romans He is our righteousness. In I Corinthians He is the first fruits from the dead. In II Corinthians He is made sin for us. In Galatians He is the end of the law. In Ephesians He is our armor. In Philippians He is the supplier of every need. In Colossians He is the preeminent one. In I Thessalonians He is the returning Lord. In II Thessalonians He is the world's merciful judge. In I Timothy He is our mediator. In II Timothy He is the bestower of the crown. In Titus He is our great God and Savior. In Philemon He is the Father's partner. In Hebrews He is the rest of faith and fulfiller of types. In James He is the Lord of the Sabbath. I Peter He is the theme of the Old Testament prophecy. In II Peter He is the longsuffering Savior. In I John He is the Word of life. In II John He is the target of the anti-christ. In III John He is the personification of truth. In Jude He is the believer's hope. In Revelation He is the victorious lamb.

"Search the scriptures . . . they . . . testify of me." JOHN 5:39

Take the time to read the New Testament this month and find Jesus in each of these books.

THE BEAR AND THE RED HOT STOVE!

Once in a dense forest a big bear broke into a cabin of some hunters. They were out at the time but had left a fire in a pot-bellied stove. The bear saw the red hot stove and figured it was an enemy, so he ran over and put a bear hug on it. Naturally, he was severely burned, but Mr. Bear thought the enemy was trying to fight back, so he squeezed a lot harder and was burned even more. The more he squeezed the more he was burned. What a vicious circle for a vicious bear to be in!

There are many people who would say, "What a dumb animal to hug something to his own hurt!" But it might be they are doing the same thing. How many people are there who hug worldliness (lying, dancing, adultery, wearing immodest apparel, drinking, etc.) to themselves and refuse to part with it? Let someone warn them of the danger and they will hug it all the more. Many cannot bear to part the sin of worldliness, and yet they cannot be saved while holding on to it (1 John 2:15-17). Too many of us are acting a great deal like that bear.

We often profess a desire to go to heaven, but all the while we hang to those very things that will prevent our going. The penman of the book of Hebrews wrote, "Wherefore seeing we are com- passed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with pa- tience the race that is set before us" (Heb. 12:1).

Paul wrote, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God" (Colossians 3:1-3).

What would make a person want to "gamble" on the eternal home of his (or her) soul (Matthew 16:24-26)? As Christians, we ought to "let go" of anything that has the potential for hindering our being in heaven.
