Hot or Cold

Are you familiar with the following experiment? Place one hand in hot water and the other in ice water. After a few minutes, place both hands in separate bowls of room temperature water. An amazing thing happens. The hand that once was in hot water now feels cold. The hand that was in cold water now feels hot. Relying on our own sense of feeling, we would think that each bowl contained water of a different temperature. However, knowledge tells us the temperature is the same.

Only knowledge can separate what we know to be right from what we think or feel is right. May we continue to study the Word of God, that through a greater knowledge of Him we can keep from being misled by the world.

- Rick Eichelberger

Let There Be Light

The first recorded Words which we have from God are these: "Let there be light"(Genesis 1:3).

How significant that this command of God should be the first utterance which we have in the Bible. In this book of sacred writings, without which we would be in total spiritual darkness, the first Words spoken give the order for light to appear.

Much later, the apostle John tells us that "God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all"(1 John 1:5). As there would have been no light for the cosmos or material world apart from God, so there is no light to do away with spiritual ignorance and error apart from Him.

When light appears, the darkness disappears. Neither can exist in the presence of the other. Walk into a room of pitch darkness, turn on the light, and immediately the darkness is gone. Again, turn off the light, and the darkness reappears as pitch black as before.

Christ sent His apostles out into a world that was in the darkness of sin, religious error, and vain superstitions. John even remarked, "the whole world lies in the wicked one"(under the influence of Satan), (1 John 5:19). Christ intended that the Gospel, which His apostles preached, should illuminate the hearts of men with Truth so that the darkness imposed by Satan would be eliminated.

How sad it is that, though the Gospel is preached, men prefer the darkness of sin and error to the light of salvation and Truth. Of such the apostle Paul wrote: "Whose minds the god of this world has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine on them" (2 Corinthians 4:4).

There are probably more open doors in the world today for the preaching of the Gospel than at any other time in human history. Let us continue to not only "send the light," but let us "take the light" to those who are in darkness.

-Hershel Dyer

What God Wants

If most of us were asked, we would say that we want to do what God wants us to do. Perhaps, though, it would be good to ask ourselves if we really do want what God wants. A Christian is one who desires to do what God wants him to do. If we aren't doing what God wants us to do, how may we say that we are truly Christians?

What does God want in the church? Christ wants a church that is truly dedicated to Him, one that is preaching the Word, edifying the saved, and providing for those who are in need. A church which stands for the Truth under all circumstances is a church that pleases God.

What does the Lord want for my home? The Lord wants a home where His Name is magnified and where He is given first place in their hearts. He wants parents to train their children to love and obey Him.

What does the Lord want from your life? He wants a truly converted person who loves the lost and is willing to do something to help them to be saved. The Lord wants a steadfast and faithful person, not just one who is dedicated today, and then becomes friends with the world tomorrow.
