AMERICA

Patrick Henry (1736-1799), five-time Governor of Virginia, exclaimed in his most famous speech before the Virginia Assembly in 1775: "Is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"
And the fire of freedom was lit that still burns in this great nation within our hearts. I'm thankful for that freedom, but most of all I am thankful for my freedom in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:1-2) who died to free me from sin's consequences. - Wayne

The Silencing of God Seminar

July 18, 19, 20 7 p.m.

Dave Miller

gospel preacher, writer, and Executive Director of Apologetics Press,
Montgomery, AL

Cave City Convention Center
Cave City, KY

The Seminar addresses such questions as:

- Did the Founding Fathers advocate "separation of church and state?"
- Did the Founding Fathers oppose public expressions of religion?
- Did the Founding Fathers embrace "pluralism," "diversity," and "multiculturalism"?
- Did the Founding Fathers advocate acceptance of all religions—or religious neutrality?
- Was America originally intended to be a "Christian nation"?
- What were the Founders' views on moral issues—like homosexuality?
- What can Christians do to reclaim our nation from the social liberals?
- What can Christians do to save our nation from moral and spiritual destruction?

Bro. Miller says: "The Silencing of God Seminar is designed to awaken Christians to the urgent need to recall our nation from the moral and spiritual depths to which she has plunged. It issues a stirring call to reaffirm the biblical values that are being systematically stripped from our public life. It offers practical suggestions on how to reclaim our nation in hopes of averting moral and spiritual disaster."

TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ

Who said: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch?" and where?

The answer to last week's question was:
Job, Job 42:2

"Jesus – Others – Yourself"

by Bill Jackson

Someone once made an acrostic lesson, showing that this is the make-up of true JOY. The point was that it works in this way, and it works right, and that it can work in no other way. Many Christians can echo what an old song said, "I Have Found It So!"

Surely the Perfect Man knew what JOY was, and we do indeed find Jesus working for OTHERS constantly. It was the Father's thoughts of OTHERS – for us – that brought about the love and mercy now shown to man (Titus 3:4). Christ is seen as the one who loved us, and gave himself up for us (Gal. 2:20), and here was Christ's thoughts for OTHERS.

When we obey the gospel of the Christ, and apply ourselves fully to his teaching, we will find that Jesus is indeed first, and we will also find that OTHERS will come before self. thus, that JOY! All preaching and teaching, with the great preparation that precedes it, is for the benefit of OTHERS. Those who engage in visitation and personal evangelism work do so with thoughts of OTHERS. When we visit the sick and shut-ins, it is in fulfillment of thoughts we've had for OTHERS. When death touches the congregation, the visits, prayers, food preparation and other services are done because the saints have thoughts of OTHERS. And there is the help to the needy...the showers to bestow good-will and gifts upon those with occasions of joy upon them...the goods provided those in childrens' homes...thoughts, yea of OTHERS!

And the song puts it thus:

"Others, Lord, Yes, OTHERS,
Let this my motto be;
Help me to live for OTHERS,
That I may live like thee!

Some, sad to say, find no satisfaction in their daily walk, and have no really good feeling of Christian accomplishment, because they live selfishly. OTHERS seldom enter their minds; all revolves around "I, Me, My." We had said earlier that Christianity won't work in that fashion. When one gets tired of the self-centered mode, he can begin to correct it that day – do something for OTHERS!
