The book of James is known for its practical and relevant instructions for everyday living. James, the brother of Jesus and a key leader in the early church in Jerusalem, wrote this book to Jewish Christians who had been scattered abroad. They were going through various trials and tribulations. It's a book that defines true biblical faith. The messages in James are timeless and necessary for us today.

James writes in five short chapters some of the most profound words of wisdom and guidance found only in the inspired Word of God.

In our Summer Series, our eight speakers will only be able to scratch the surface of the rich content of this marvelous book. But, I promise you they will challenge us and leave us desiring to study in more. Bring your bible and be blessed. -Wayne

His lesson for this Sunday, July 19 is "Conditional" Does God place conditions on His grace and our salvation? Some suggest our salvation once given can never be lost. Conditions are often introduced with the word "if." Does Scripture present "if" statements about our salvation? For more info, go to their website at: searchtv.org

MEN'S MEETING

Nine men of the congregation meet Saturday for nearly 2 hours in the Annex to discuss monthly plans and activities in the coming days such as having devotionals, service projects for members who could use a hand, having an occasional guest speaker, studying how to answer questions people ask us about the church or bible, various topics of interest, etc.

Virtue of the Poor

Jesus said to him, "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me" (Matthew 19:21, ESV).

Some will interpret the Lord's words as being the virtue of all virtues – selling what one has in order to help the poor, but this would be a mistake in interpretation.

The Lord's point is not selling and then giving, but getting rid of the hurdle that has now become a hindrance to one's standing before the Lord.

What hurdle is it that you feel like you have to jump in order to be pleasing to the Lord? With the Lord's answer to the young man, the rich man turned away disappointed.

Will you consider the hurdle the Lord wants you to remove, or will you turn away disappointed?

- Ron Thomas

You may go back and listen to his sermons!!
