Satan's Darts

Paul spoke of "taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one" (Ephesians 6:16). The devil is powerful (1 Peter 5:8). We should be aware of his strategies (2 Corinthians 2:11). Consider some of the devil's darts.

The dart of doubt. If the devil can create disbelief in the existence of God, His supernatural power, or the inspiration and truthfulness of the Bible, he has rendered that person ineffective. The promises of God do not challenge the doubter because he is not convinced that they will be fulfilled. Warnings concerning the punishment of sin do not motivate.

The dart of deception. Satan is a master hypocrite. He appears to be an angel of light (2 Corinthians 11:13-15). His charming appearance is simply sheep's clothing disguising the wolf underneath (Matthew 7:15). His teaching is deceptive. He has contradicting doctrines to please anyone who will listen.

The dart of discouragement. The devil tempts one to reflect on past failures, other's unfaithfulness, or incapability. When we are faithful to God, we may be down, but never out (1 Corinthians 15:57).

The dart of delay. The devil always says, "Tomorrow will be better." However, God says, "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2).
