TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ:

What king of Israel did more to provoke the Lord to anger than all the kings of Israel before him?

The answer to last week's question was: the angel Gabriel, Luke 1:26-38

You Tell On Yourself

You tell on yourself by the friends you seek,
By the very manner in which you speak,
By the way you employ your leisure time,
By the use you make of the dollar and dime.
You tell on yourself by the things you wear,
By the spirit in which your burdens bear,
By the kind of things that make you laugh,
By the places you go to photograph.
You tell on yourself by the way you walk,
By the things of which you delight to talk,
By the manner in which you bear defeat,
By so simple a thing as how you eat.
By the books you choose from the well-filled shelf,
In these ways and more, you tell on yourself.
So there is not even a particle of sense,
In an effort to keep up a false pretense.

Highs and Lows

by Amy Clarke Ellis

If all the world were broad and flat
How dull the scene would be!
We'd wish instead for hills and vales
With changing views to see.

If all of life were free from care,
Devoid of tears and pain,
There'd be no failure or success --
No summits to attain.

But life is filled with ups and downs,
With happiness and woe.
Our joys are like the mountaintops;
Our sorrows lie below.

The Lord who made the lofty peaks
Designed the valleys too.
And He is there at every turn
To guide our passage through.

There Is Never A Day So Dreary

by Lilla M. Alexander

There is never a day so dreary
But God can make it bright,
And unto the soul that trusts Him
He giveth songs in the night.

There is never a path so hidden
But God will lead the way,
If we seek for the Spirit's guidance,
And patiently wait and pray.

There is never a cross so heavy
But the nail scarred hands are there,
Outstretched in tender compassion,
The burden to help us bear.

There is never a heart so broken
But the loving Lord can heal,
For the Lord that was pierced on Calvary
Doth still for his loved ones feel.

There is never a life so darkened,
So hopeless and unblest,
But may be filled with the light of God,
And enter His promised rest.

There is never a sin or sorrow,
There is never a care or loss,
But that we may bring to Jesus,
And leave at the foot of the cross.
