Number 46

Will There Be A Judgement Day? by E. R. Hall, Jr.

Let's answer this question by asking another question: Do you believe in death? I'm sure you do for it is all around us. Every day the newspapers give an obituary column. You don't drive many times past the funeral homes but what people are not gathered to show respect to someone who has died. The Bible teaches just as certain as there is death, there is the judgement. Hebrews 9:27 says, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement." Yes, there will be a judgement day!

When will the judgement day occur? "And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;" (2 Thessalonians 1:7-9). Matthew also describes the Lord's return as a time when "before Him shall be gathered all nations: and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats." (25:31-46).

The Scriptures have revealed to us some things about the judgement day. In Romans 2:2 we read, "But we are sure that the judgement of God is according to truth against them which commit such things." Thus we see the STANDARD or "measuring stick" by which we will be judged is not what I think or what you think but rather "truth". God determines truth for His Word is truth (John 17:17). Therefore, we will be judged by the Word. "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day." (John 12:48). The BASIS on what we will be judged are our "deeds". "Who will render every man according to his deeds:" (Romans 2:6) "For the Son of man shall come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and then He shall reward every man according to his works." (Matthew 16:27).

VERY SPECIAL THANKS:

I want to thank those who filled in for me while I used one of my two vacation weeks. Last Sunday Darrell Wallace and BA Fudge preached in my absence and Wed. night, Nov. 18, Billy Bybee taught the auditorium class. I know they all did a wonderful job. Becky & I did not even leave the county, but the break was good. We enjoyed visiting and worshiping with the church at South Green St. and Mt. Vernon. Everyone needs a break from time to time. I hope to use my final week of time off sometime toward the last of December.

It's hard to believe that we are about to enter the last month of 2009. Job was indeed right when he said "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle..." and James who said: "What is your life? For ye are a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." In Christian Love, Wayne

NEW STUDY – NEW QUARTER:

Next Sunday morning the auditorium class will start a new quarter and will study "Period of the Judges". This will be a great study and will contain valuable lessons for us today.

The Wed. night auditorium class is studying the Gospel of John - Lesson 6 from our study guide: He Knows Just What I Need John 4:1-45

TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ:

What brother of Jesus does Paul call an apostle?

The answer to our last question was: Joab, 2 Samuel 8:16

"How does one call on the name of the Lord to be saved?"

by Jimmy Thomas

The Bible says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:13; Acts 2:21; Joel 2:32). This promise is to all. Everyone who thus calls "shall be saved."

Some think that calling on the Lord is crying, "Lord, Lord," but Jesus asked, "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Lk. 6:46) Again He said, "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven" (Mt. 7:21). There is something one must do in order to be saved (Acts 16:30; 22:10).

Others tell sinners to kneel at an altar and pray to the Lord for salvation. This they insist is how one calls on the name of the Lord. Prayer is a privilege of God's children (Mt. 6:9). No alien is saved by prayer (I Pet. 3:12). The publican and the thief were both Jews, not aliens (Lk. 18:13; 23:42). Cornelius was not saved by his prayers, as he had to hear words whereby he was saved (Acts 10: 2, 4; 11:14).

Many teach that one calls on the name of the Lord when he believes. They shout, "All you have to do to be saved is just believe on the Lord." James wrote, "Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only" (Jas. 2:24; cf. John 12:42,43).

Paul indicated that those who call on the Lord are the ones who hear, believe and obey the gospel (Rom. 10:14-17). These are the same "who were baptized into Christ" (Rom. 6:3,4,17,18). When one hears, believes and is baptized, he calls "upon the name of the Lord" and is saved (cf. Acts 18:8).

On Pentecost, Peter identified "the Lord," upon whose name one is to call, as "Jesus of Nazareth" "whom God raised up" (Acts 2:22,24; cf. v. 36). When the people asked, "What shall we do?" (i.e., "How shall we call on His name?"), Peter replied, "Repent ye, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins" (vv. 37,38). "They that received his word were baptized" (v. 41). In this way, they called upon His name.

The example of Saul clearly shows how one "calls on the name of the Lord." Although he was praying, Ananias said to him, "And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on His name" (Acts 9:11; 22:16). As a penitent believer, Saul was baptized to wash away his sins, and, in so doing, he called "upon the name of the Lord."

This is exactly what Jesus said one must do to be saved (Mk. 16:16). Notice the parallel: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." One calls on the name of the Lord to be saved when he is "baptized into Christ," not before (Gal. 3:27).
